AEM FINAL TASK – Harshan R

i) Home Page

ii) Award Description Page

iii) About Me

AUTHOR NAME

Kazuo Ishiguro

AUTHOR BIO

Kazuo Ishiguro is a British novelist of Japanese origin, known for his deeply introspective and emotionally rich storytelling. Born in Nagasaki in 1954, he moved to England as a child, and his writing reflects themes of memory, identity, and the passage of time. His most famous novel, The Remains of the Day (1989), explores the quiet regrets of a devoted butler and won the Booker Prize.Ishiguro often blends genres, as seen in Never Let Me Go (2005), a dystopian novel about human cloning, and The Buried Giant (2015), which incorporates fantasy elements. His latest novel, Klara and the Sun (2021), examines artificial intelligence and human emotions.Awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2017, Ishiguro is praised for his subtle, poignant prose and his exploration of human nature. His works continue to captivate readers worldwide with their quiet yet profound emotional depth. .

AUTHOR DOB

November 8, 1954

About Me	Contact Me	Books	Follow Me
Welcome to the bookStore, we offer a wide range of books and personalized, and engaging book discussion. More...	Email: kazuoishiguro@gmail.com Phone: +91 9787978798	Click here!	Facebook, Instagram, Twitter

iv)   Books Page

KAZUO

Search   Home   About Me   Book ▼   Contact Me

Books

The Remains of the Day
Won the Booker Prize, a poignant novel about a butler reflecting on his past.

Never Let Me Go
A dystopian novel exploring love, memory, and human cloning.

Klara and the Sun
A sci-fi novel about AI, consciousness, and emotions.

An Artist of the Floating World
Shortlisted for the Booker Prize, about an aging Japanese artist reflecting on WWII.
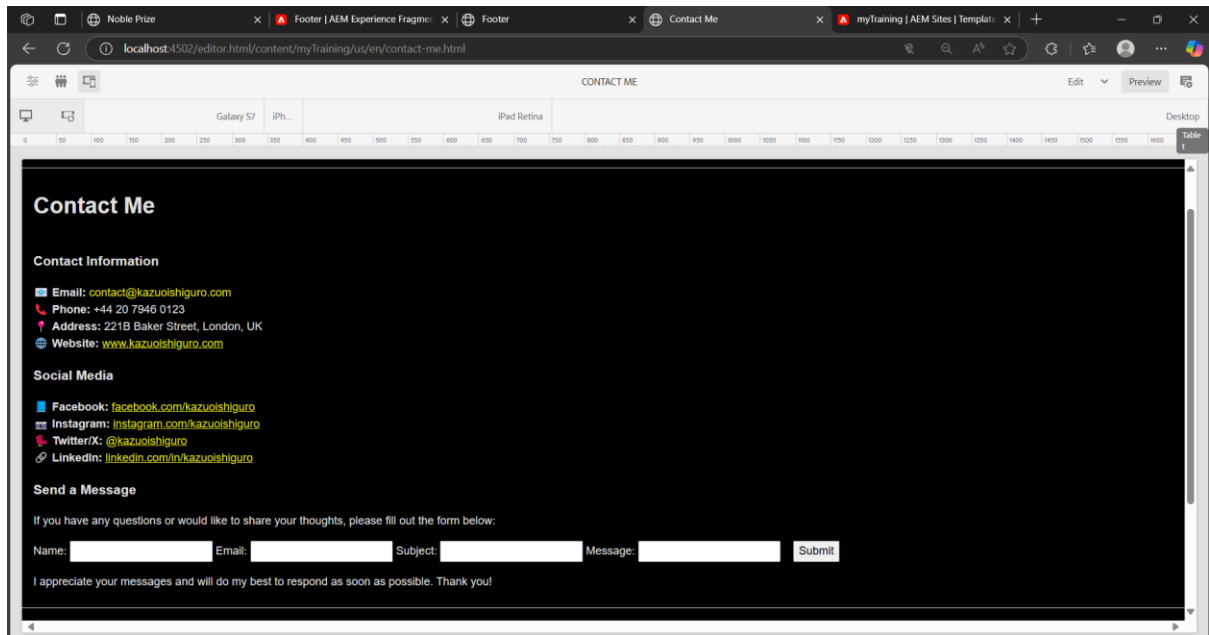

Load More

About Me   Contact Me   Books   Follow Me
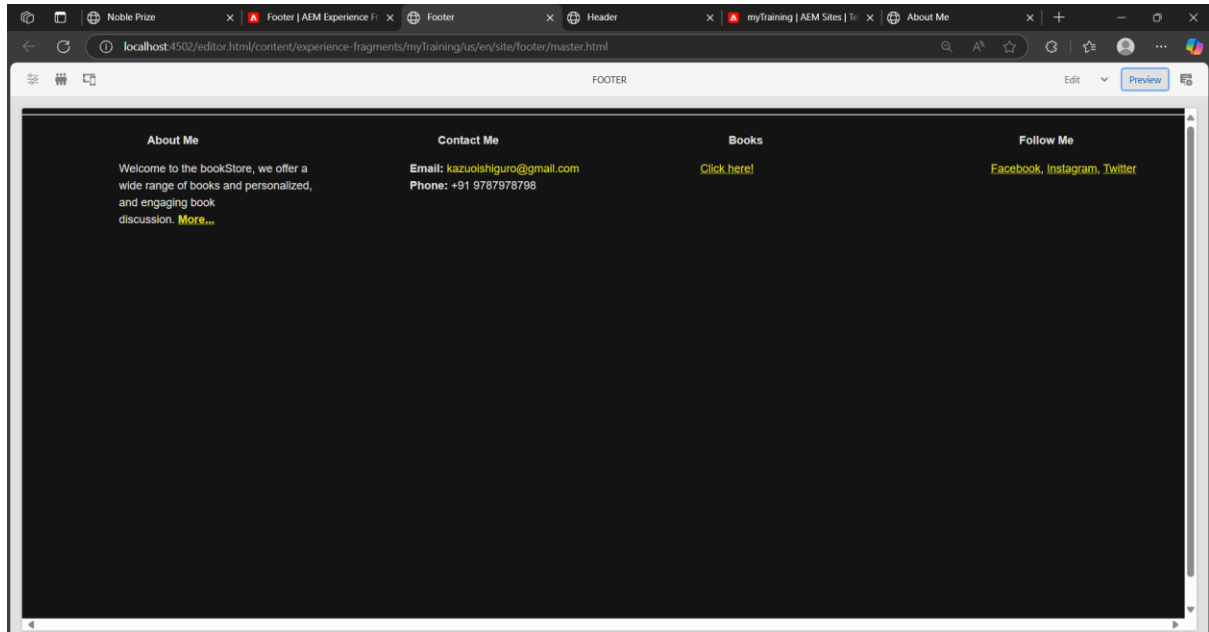

v)Book Detail Page
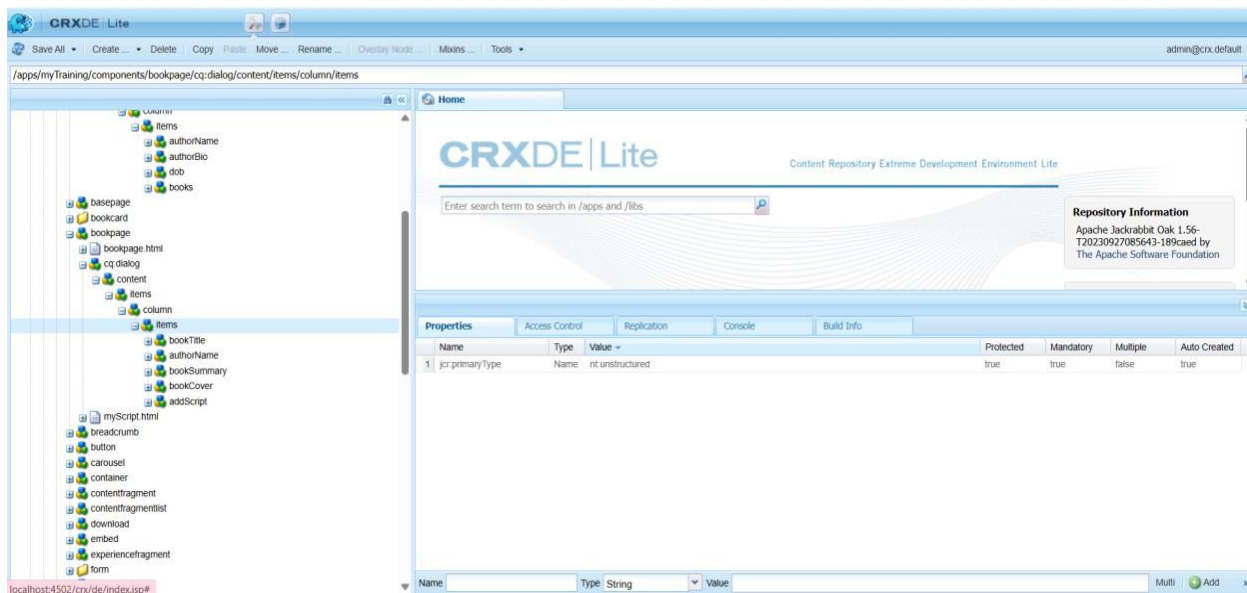

vi)   Contact Me Page

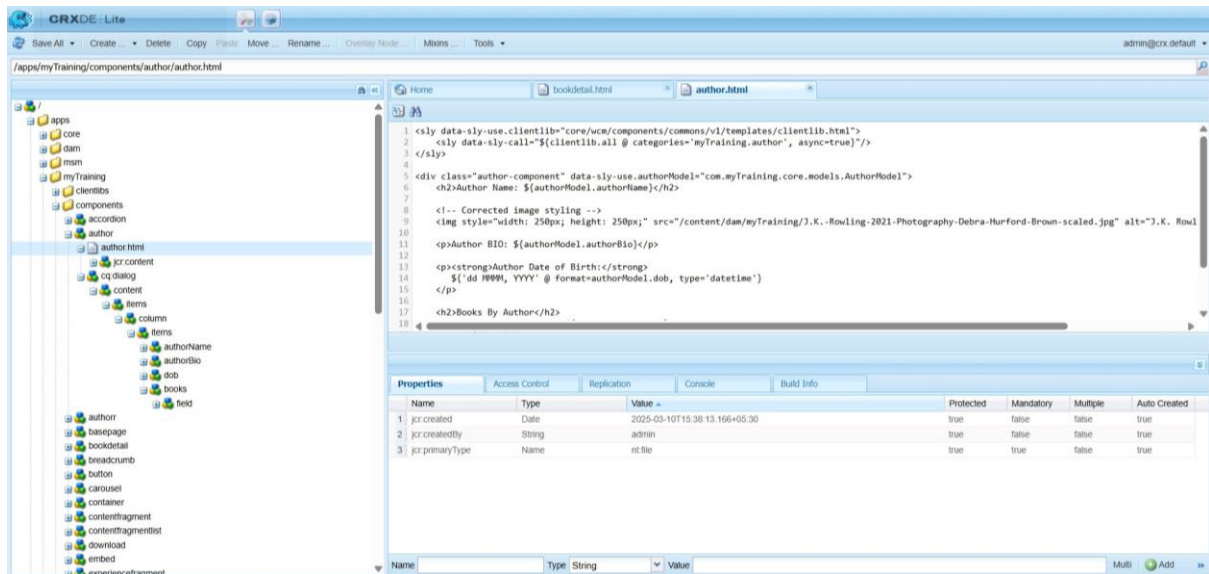

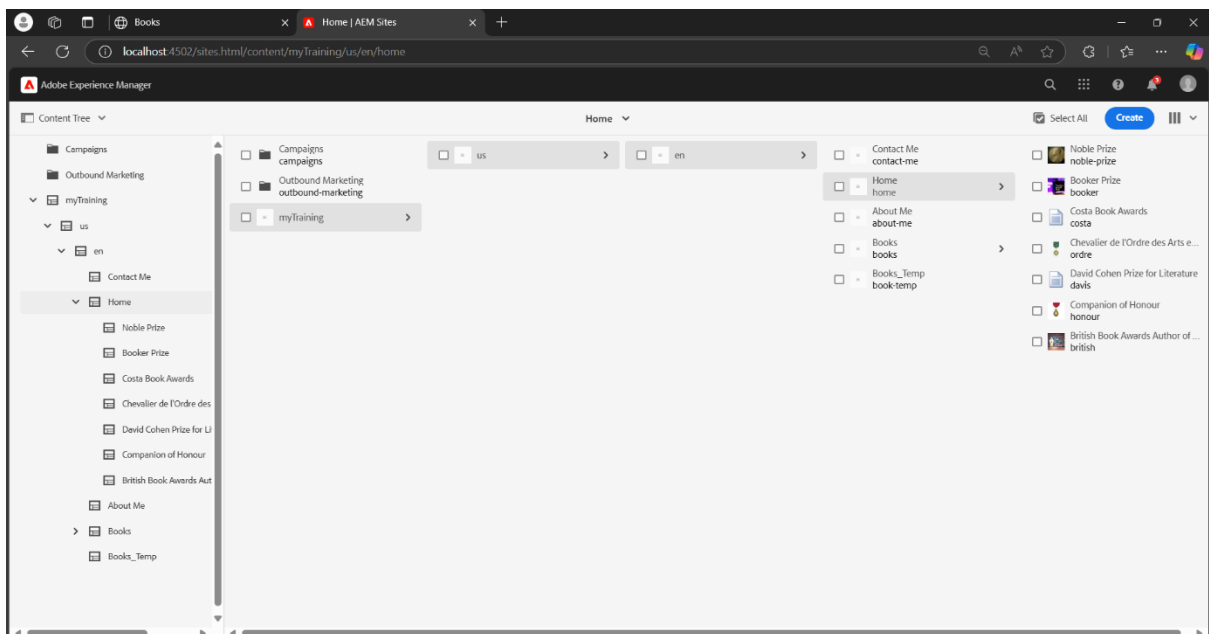

vii)   Header

viii) Footer

ix)   Book Page Component

x) Author Component

xi)   myTraining sites

xii)   Book and Author Templates